

ATSIDNQ

Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander
Disability Network of Queensland

ATSIDNQ is a network of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people with a disability. It was established to raise awareness of the cultural and social needs of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people with a disability, their families and carers. The Network also provides a voice for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people in the transition to the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS).

Why become a member of the ATSIDNQ?

- Be part of a vibrant network of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people with a disability, their families and carers
- Receive newsletters and gain information about issues which affect Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people with disabilities
- Be involved in having your say about the NDIS and how it may effect you. The network aims to let the government know what the important issues are for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people with disabilities
- Membership is free

How can I get involved?

- Become a member or supporter of the ATSIDNQ by filling in this membership application to join the network
- Share your stories, contribute to our newsletter and watch out for network meeting opportunities
